

All exhibitors and vendors must restrict their sales, solicitations, distribution of materials, placement of signs and posters, promotional activities, etc., to their specific space as purchased and assigned.

No one is permitted to walk about the fairgrounds distributing materials.